PROCEEDINGS AND DEBATES OF THE 105th CONGRESS, FIRST SESSION

Vol. 143

WASHINGTON, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 13, 1997

No. 160

Senate

The Senate met at 10 a.m., and was called to order by the President pro tempore [Mr. THURMOND].

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Dr. Lloyd John Ogilvie, offered the following prayer:

Loving Heavenly Father, to know You is life's ultimate purpose; to trust You is our only peace; to serve You is our true joy. We praise You for the privilege of friendship with You. We humbly acknowledge that any good we have done, any progress we have made, and any accomplishments we have achieved are all because of Your indefatigable inspiration. There is no limit to the blessings You pour out on those who give You the glory. You have been the source of every creative thought, all crucial legislation, and any constructive compromise that has blended the best points of view. You are the source of unity in diversity and mutual trust that triumphs over competitive party spirit. When we are fearful, You give us courage; when we are under pressure, You flood our hearts with peace.

Thank You dear God for continuing to bless America, as You persist in empowering the women and men of this Senate to lead with vision. Through our Lord and Saviour. Amen.

RECOGNITION OF THE MAJORITY LEADER

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. The able majority leader, Senator LOTT of Mississippi, is recognized.

Mr. LOTT. Thank you, Mr. President.

SCHEDULE

Mr. LOTT. Mr. President, today, the Senate will be in a period of morning business until 11 a.m. It is hoped that during today's session the Senate will be able to complete its business for the 1st session of the 105th Congress. I just talked to the Democratic leader and we agreed to push to accomplish that today. In fact, I read over the weekend a quote from General Eisenhower. When he was President he said, "There are many problems in Washington, but one of the main reasons is we have too long been away from home." So I'm hoping that we will honor his admonition and go home at the close of business today for the balance of the year to be with our constituents.

NOTICE

Under the Rules for Publication of the Congressional Record, a final issue of the Congressional Record for the first session of the 105th Congress will be published on the 31st day after adjournment in order to permit Members to revise and extend their remarks.

All materials for insertion must be signed by the Member and delivered to the respective offices responsible for the Record in the House or Senate between the hours of 9 a.m. and 5 p.m., Monday through Friday (until the 10th day after adjournment). House Members should deliver statements to the Office of Floor Reporters (Room HT-60 of the Capitol) and Senate Members to the Office of Official Reporters of Debate (S-123 in the Capitol).

The final issue will be dated the 31st day after adjournment and will be delivered on the 33d day after adjournment. None of the material printed in the final issue of the Congressional Record may contain subject matter, or relate to any event, that occurred after the adjournment date.

Along with signed statements, House Members are requested, whenever possible, to submit revised statements or extensions of remarks and other materials related to House Floor debate on diskette in electronic form in ASCII, WordPerfect or MicroSoft Word format. Disks must be labeled with Members' names and the filename on the disk. All disks will be returned to Member offices via inside mail.

Senators statements should also be submitted electronically, either on a disk to accompany the signed statement, or by e-mail to the Official Reporters of Debate at "Record@Reporters".

Members of Congress desiring to purchase reprints of material submitted for inclusion in the Congressional Record may do so by contacting the Congressional Printing Management Division, at the Government Printing Office, on 512-0224.

By order of the Joint Committee on Printing.

JOHN WARNER, Chairman.
